

Leavenworth Mountain Association is seeking new board members

Climbers supporting Leavenworth's canyons and mountains through stewardship, education, and partnership.

What We Do: LMA is a local climbing organization for the Leavenworth area. We represent climbers as a recreation user group and are an access and stewardship focused organization. We coordinate with public and private land managers to mitigate the impacts of recreation so that our climbing areas remain beautiful, sustainable, and open. We are the organizer of community events like Rockfest and the Icicle Clean Up.

YOU CAN HELP

- Be a steward of Central Washington public lands and a voice for local climbing areas and the climbing community.
- Do you have a unique story, perspective, or skills to contribute?
 - website skills; digital organization; graphic design; writing skills; finance or accounting experience; fundraising or grant writing skills; advertising; events coordination; networking; a background in public land management; trail building; public speaking; social media; anything else to help LMA fulfill its mission.
- Board members attend monthly board meetings, participate in committees, attend LMA events, and champion causes of stewardship, education, and outreach.
- We are currently in need of a board secretary and grant writing experience
